Learning Assistant

Salary £17,921 (FTE).

This salary will be pro-rated for term time and part time working.

We promote and deliver early intervention for young children with autism and other communication difficulties and support families and practitioners through training and outreach programmes.

Our specialist nursery in Middle Claydon, Bucks is seeking dedicated learning assistant(s) to join our highly expert team. Our learning assistants support children individually and in small groups under the guidance of a specialist teacher, speech and language therapist and occupational therapist, to facilitate their communication, play and learning.

We are looking to recruit someone who has:

- A childcare qualification (NVQ Level 3 or above)
- Good communication skills with adults and children and a commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.
- Experience of working with young children with Special Educational Needs, particularly learning and language difficulties including ASD.

The successful candidate will benefit from:

- A comprehensive induction training package.
- Ongoing specialist training and support from specialist teachers, occupational therapists and speech and language therapists;
- Working alongside a friendly and dedicated team of colleagues;
- Opportunities to work closely with parents and families;
- The chance to observe and develop best practice in autism early intervention;
- Term time working- with opportunities for additional hours during school holidays for specific projects.

Our nursery is open 35 weeks a year, over 3 terms. We also offer a contributory pension scheme.
